Security and economy will figure high during Iraqi Prime Minister Mustafa al-Kadhimi's visit to Turkey this month, the Iraqi ambassador in Ankara said on Sunday.

In statements to Alsabaah newspaper, Hasan al-Janabi said al-Kadhimi will visit Turkey on Dec. 17 upon an invitation from Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan.

He said talks will focus on cross-border penetration of terrorists, military operations and bolstering trade exchange, which currently stands at $15 billion.
