Pakistan has categorically reject[ed] statements by Indias foreign minister regarding cross-border terrorism, in which he appeared to be making a thinly veiled dig at Indias western neighbour.

In a statement issued late on Sunday, Pakistans foreign ministry termed the remarks by Indian Foreign Minister Subrahmanyam Jaishankar as baseless allegations.

Pakistan categorically rejects terrorism-related insinuations by the Indian External Affairs Minister and other political figures today, read the Pakistani statement. Regurgitating of baseless allegations does not turn them into truth.
