BELGRADE, Serbia

US President Joe Biden on Sunday urged Serbia to recognize Kosovo in a letter to Aleksandar Vucic, the country's president.

We remain steadfast in our support for Serbias goal of European integration and encourage you to continue taking the hard steps forward to reach that aim □ including instituting necessary reforms and reaching a comprehensive normalization agreement with Kosovo centered on mutual recognition, he wrote in the letter in relation to Statehood Day of Serbia, which is on Feb. 15.

Reacting to the message, Vucic said Serbia is ready to continue dialogue with Kosovo, but it will not recognize it.
