Israeli-Palestinian violence reverberates across Europe. The EU has so far been hesitant to show support for either side in the ongoing Israel-Palestine conflict for fear of jeopardising the peace process. EU foreign ministers will hold an extraordinary videoconference on Tuesday (18 May) in search of a common position.

Germany, Austria and Slovenia have so far openly backed Israel's right to defend itself. In Czechia, upon President Miloš Zeman's orders, the Israeli flag is flying over the seat of the Czech presidency.
