AL HAKIM MEETS TUELLER

03.11.2021

Iraqi News Agency (November 2, 2021)

The head of the National State Forces Alliance, Ammar al-Hakim, stressed today, Tuesday, that the next government must lead the country towards stability and prosperity.

The media office of the President of the National State Forces Alliance stated in a statement received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA), that " Al-Hakim received the Ambassador of the United States of America Matthew Tueller, and the two sides discussed developments in the political scene in Iraq and the region, and the results of the recent parliamentary elections, and bilateral relations between the two countries."
