TURKEY EMPHASIZES NEW BASIS FOR DIALOGUE WITHIN TURKIC COUNCIL

- 03.11.2021

Daily Sabah (1 November 2021)

Turkey attaches great importance to the establishment of new grounds for dialogue by Turkic Council members' judicial organs at a time when threats that directly affect countries and their citizens such as terrorism, irregular migration and transnational crimes are increasing, President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan said Monday.

Erdoğan sent a video message to the Turkic Council Chief Prosecutors Meeting in the Azerbaijani capital Baku.

Expressing that the Turkic Council, which was established 12 years ago, is one of the symbols of unity and solidarity, he emphasized that the global reputation of the council, which completed its institutionalization in 12 years, is gradually increasing.
