MYANMAR MILITARY DELIBERATELY KILLED CIVILIANS AFTER COUP: REPORT

Al Jazeera (24 Mart 2022)

Myanmars military and police deliberately killed civilians opposed to its rule in the six months following the coup in February 2021, in a policy that amounts to crimes against humanity, according to new research published on Thursday.

Nowhere is Safe, jointly authored by rights group Fortify Rights and the Schell Center for International Human Rights at Yale Law School, documents acts of murder, torture, imprisonment, enforced disappearances, forced population transfer, and persecution that took place between February and July 2021.

It found reasonable grounds to believe that the Myanmar junta is responsible for crimes against humanity.
