AzerNews (8 April 2022)

On April 7, President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev made a phone call to President of the Republic of Turkiye Recep Tayyip Erdogan, Azertag has reported.

During the phone conversation, the sides discussed the trilateral meeting between the European Union, Azerbaijan and Armenia held in Brussels on April 6 at the initiative and with the participation of the President of the European Council Charles Michel.

President Ilham Aliyev praised the results of the meeting.

The head of state underlined the basic principles presented by Azerbaijan, as well as the decisions made to set up a working group between Armenia and Azerbaijan to prepare a peace agreement, including mutual recognition of territorial integrity and renunciation of territorial claims, and to establish a commission on the delimitation of borders.

President Recep Tayyip Erdogan expressed satisfaction with the results achieved.

During the conversation, the sides noted that the signing of a peace agreement and the construction of transport and communication lines between Armenia and Azerbaijan will contribute to ensuring lasting peace and stability in the region and the development and prosperity of the regional countries.

The presidents also exchanged views on various aspects of bilateral allied relations between Azerbaijan and Turkiye.
