
IN RUSH TO PROFIT, ALBANIA PUTS PROTECTED COASTAL AREAS AT RISK

-

17.05.2022

Balkan Insight (17 May 2022)

Blerina Gjoka

A rugged outcrop on the southernmost tip of the Albania coast just a few miles from the Greek island of Corfu, the Cape of Stillo can be reached only by foot or by speedboat.

It has been uninhabited for as long as anyone can remember and, as such, is one of only a few undeveloped areas of the Albanian coast, a coast otherwise blighted by unregulated construction.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: