
PROTESTS IN GREECE AGAINST MIGRATION POLICY

- 21.03.2023

InfoMigrants (20 March 2023)

Hundreds of refugees protested in Athens on Saturday to mark their opposition to the Greek government's migration policy. Migrants held up banners accusing the government of having "blood on your hands."

Migrants, asylum seekers and refugees joined the protests in Athens on Saturday (March 18) in which hundreds protested the Greek governments migration policy, reported the French news agency Agence France Presse (AFP).

Banners were held up by some of the demonstrators, accusing the Greek government of having blood on its hands. AFP reported that one banner read: "Stop pushbacks, down with the government of murderers."

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: