Mariya Gabriel, nominated for prime minister by GERB-SDS, met with the leadership of the parliamentary group of "There Is Such a People" (TISP).

The chairman of the parliamentary group of TISP Toshko Yordanov stated that the party will not support a government that tends to make big mistakes and in this sense, Gabriel will have difficult talks with BSP and WCC. According to "There Is Such a People", the country needs a more restrictive budget, with a deficit of up to 3%, in order to get out of the crisis.
