Azernews (16 October 2023)

The U.S. State Department denied the information circulated by Politico, Azernews reports.

The article published in Politico said that Secretary of State Antony Blinken allegedly warned at a meeting with U.S. congressmen that Azerbaijan could attack Armenia in the coming weeks.

State Department spokesman Matthew Miller said that the article published in Politico was erroneous and did not reflect the content of Blinken's conversation with the congressmen.
