Radio Free Europe (28 July 2024)

Georgias largest opposition party, the United National Movement, will submit a lawsuit against the controversial foreign agent law to the Constitutional Court on July 29, the party has told RFE/RLs Georgian Service. Thirty-two opposition lawmakers signed the lawsuit on July 22. Georgian President Salome Zurbishvili, a fierce critic of the law, filed a challenge against the legislation with the Constitutional Court on July 16. [...]
