Trend.az (31 July 2024)

High Representative of the EU for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy Josep Borrell will visit Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan from August 1 to 3, Trend reports via the European External Action Service (EEAS).

The visit presents a significant chance to reaffirm the EU's dedication to strengthening ties with both nations and the entire Central Asian region, even in the face of a difficult geopolitical climate.

The two-day tour will start in Kazakhstan on August 1. Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Murat Nurtleu will meet with Borrell during their bilateral visit. At 14:20 (GMT+4), a joint press conference will be televised live on EbS. Borrell will also be meeting with Kazakhstan's president, Kassym-Jomart Tokayev, on the same day.
