Türkiye may open the border with Armenia if the talks between Azerbaijan and Armenia give a positive result, Turkish Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan told the Sabah newspaper, Trend reports.

The negotiation process continues between Azerbaijan and Armenia. If its result is positive, Türkiye can open the border with Armenia, he said.

To note, some time ago, the 5th meeting of special representatives Ruben Rubinyan and Serdar Kilic to normalize relations between the two countries took place on the Armenian-Turkish border.
