Armenia is pursuing further acquisition of 155mm ATAGS (Advanced Towed Artillery Gun Systems) from India, according to Sujan Chinoy, Director General of the Institute of Defence Studies and Analysis (India).

Chinoy shared this information during a discussion with Armenian media , News.Az reports.

In 2022, Armenia placed an order with New Delhi for ATAGS artillery systems valued at $155 million. The first shipment of six 155mm towed howitzers was delivered in August 2023. Chinoy noted that the ATAGS systems, known for their high maneuverability and success, have met Armenian satisfaction with their performance.
