"The EU is yet to properly investigate and adequately comment on the facts surrounding the killing of yellow vest protesters in France, torture against indigenous population in overseas territories as a result of French neo-colonial policy, the growth in the cases of bribery and corruption within the EU institutions, Islamophobia, and attacks on Muslims."

Aykhan Hajizada, Spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, said this in his response to the media inquiry on the 11 September remarks by the European Union about the public statement of the Council of Europe's Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CPT), Azernews reports, citing the Foreign Ministry's Press Services.
