Azerbaijan calls for expeditious steps to address remaining impediments for finalization of the normalization process with full sense of responsibility, says Jeyhun Bayramov.

Azerbaijani Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov said partial peace with Armenia is not an option, as the neighboring countries continue to hold peace talks to normalize relations.

Addressing the 79th session of the UN General Assembly on Saturday, Bayramov said such a peace is not an option after so much pain and sufferings inflicted by irredentism and territorial claims against neighbors.
