Iraqi News Agency (8 October 2024)

Palestinian Ambassador to Iraq Ahmed Al-Ruwaidi praised, on Tuesday, the contents of Prime Minister Mohammed Shia Al-Sudani's message to the international community and his continued emphasis on the right of the Palestinian people to self-determination and the establishment of their state, stressing that Iraq has taken an honorable stand with the Palestinian people since the events of October 7 on the political and humanitarian levels, and its position supports stopping the Zionist aggression and establishing the Palestinian state.

Al-Ruwaidi said in his interview with Al-Iraqiya News, which was followed by the Iraqi News Agency (INA): "Iraq has stood and continues to stand with the Palestinian people, both politically and popularly, throughout the year, honorably, as a government and a people, by receiving the wounded from the people of Gaza and providing them with the treatment they need, as well as sending fuel shipments."
