Indian and Chinese foreign ministers held talks to review progress made on the border pact announced last month.

Indian Foreign Minister S. Jaishankar and his Chinese counterpart Wang Yi met on the sidelines of the ongoing G20 Summit in the Brazilian city of Rio de Janeiro.

We noted the progress in the recent disengagement in the India-China border areas, Jaishankar said on X, adding the two sides exchanged views on the next steps in the bilateral ties and discussed the global situation.
