Kazakhstan and the European Union concluded key agreements on March 13 in Astana under the EUs Global Gateway Strategy as part of the visit of EU Commissioner for International Partnerships Jozef Síkela to Kazakhstan.

Addressing the press following his meeting with Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Murat Nurtleu, Síkela emphasized his visit came at an important moment in the partnership between Kazakhstan and the EU.

During our discussion, he [Murat Nurtleu] mentioned a phrase that resonates strongly with me. The EU and Kazakhstan are a great match. Indeed, we have high ambitions, great expertise, and we are looking for a reliable partner, said Síkela.
