
GREECE AND EGYPT REAFFIRM PLANS FOR 1,000-KILOMETRE UNDERSEA POWER CABLE

- 08.05.2025

Euronews (7 May 2025)

Gavin Blackburn with AP

The project, estimated to cost around 11 billion, is expected to become operational within five years under an ambitious timeline set by both governments.

Greece and Egypt have reaffirmed their commitment to a proposed undersea electricity connection designed to transport renewable energy from North Africa to Europe.

Greek Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis and Egyptian President Abdel Fattah el-Sissi renewed the pledge during talks in Athens, following the signing of cooperation agreements across multiple sectors.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: