Hosted by the Armenian Foreign Ministry, the 2nd edition of Yerevan Dialogue forum will be held 26-27 May 2025 in Yerevan.

This year the discussions will be held under the title Navigating the Unknown, organizers have said.

The Dialogue will bring up the topics of new geopolitical tendencies, challenges and prospects for peace and security, rising economic confrontations and uncertainties as well as benefits of regional cooperation, including through enhanced connectivity and trade. It will address the ways to live in harmony with the nature , including priorities of the upcoming COP30 and COP17, as well deep dive on AIs transformative yet complex implications.
