
SERBIAN PROTESTS ESCALATE AS STUDENTS DEMAND EARLY VOTE

-

02.07.2025

Euractiv (1 July 2025)

Lurent Geslin

Serbias protest movement has entered a new phase of defiance, with nationwide roadblocks disrupting traffic for three consecutive days as citizens demand snap parliamentary elections.

Following a demonstration reportedly bringing together more than 140,000 people in central Belgrade on Saturday, student representatives declared the government illegitimate and issued an "ultimatum": call snap elections by 9 pm that night.

The deadline passed without a response, and clashes with police ensued, resulting in injuries on both sides.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: