'Attacks or threats against the Court, elected officials, personnel and those cooperating with the Court are not acceptable,' bloc's foreign policy chief says

The EU foreign policy chief on Sunday voiced "deep regret" over the US decision to sanction officials of the International Criminal Court (ICC).

"The EU once again deeply regrets the decision to impose sanctions on the two deputy Prosecutors and on two judges of the ICC. This decision may impact the functioning of the Office of the Prosecutor and ongoing investigations," Kaja Kallas said in a statement issued by the European External Action Service (EEAS), the EUs diplomatic arm.
