Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan has expressed hope that the positive dialogue between Armenia and Türkiye could lead to the border between the two countries opening in the near future.

He talked about the Armenia-Türkiye normalization during his speech at the 2025 Tbilisi Silk Road Forum.

The positive dialogue between Armenia and Türkiye gives hope that the parties may open the borders in the near future. We are ready, not only politically but also technically, starting today, to ensure the transit of freight trucks through Armenian territory from Türkiye to Azerbaijan and from Azerbaijan to Türkiye. Both the roads and border infrastructure within Armenia are prepared for this along the Margara-Yeghvard-Sisian-Goris route.
