Iraqi News Agency (5 November 2025)

Iraqi Prime Minister Mohammed Shia al-Sudani oversaw on Wednesday the signing ceremony for awarding the contract to the winning consortium for the rehabilitation and development of Baghdad International Airport.

The Prime Ministers Media Office stated in a press release received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA) that Prime Minister Mohammed Shia al-Sudani oversaw the signing ceremony for awarding the contract to the winning consortium for the development, expansion, and operation of Baghdad International Airport. The winning consortium is CAAP, led by Airport Corporation of America.

The International Finance Corporation (IFC), a member of the World Bank Group and the governments advisor, worked for two years on preparing this tender, developing the requirements for presenting the project to international companies, qualifying the best bids, and preparing the public-private partnership contract for the airports development and operation, the statement added.
