
ARMENIA AND KAZAKHSTAN SET TO SIGN DOZEN KEY AGREEMENTS

-

21.11.2025

ArmenPress (21 November 2025)

Anna Gziryan

Armenia and Kazakhstan are expected to sign more than ten highly significant cooperation documents during Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyans official visit to the Central Asian country.

Deputy Prime Minister Mher Grigoryan, speaking at a press briefing in Astana, highlighted the economic components of these documents.

The recent logistical developments indicate significant potential for cooperation, Grigoryan said, referring to the shipment of Kazakh wheat to Armenia via railway.

Click for more.

Kaynak/Source: