China Daily (20 November 2025)

Foreign ministers from China and Kyrgyzstan held their first strategic dialogue on Wednesday, pledging to deepen political dialogue, maintain high-level exchanges and deepen cooperation in various fields.

The establishment of the strategic dialogue mechanism will help further strengthen strategic mutual trust, enhance strategic coordination and promote strategic cooperation, Foreign Minister Wang Yi said during the dialogue with his Kyrgyz counterpart Jeenbek Kulubaev in Bishkek.

Kyrgyzstan is Wang's first stop of his four-day trip to Central Asia, which will also take him to Uzbekistan and Tajikistan.
