Hürriyet Daily News (12 December 2025)

President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan emphasized the importance of global dialogue for peace amid rising uncertainties during his address at the International Peace and Trust Forum in Turkmenistan's capital on Friday.

Erdoğan described the forum as highly meaningful, expressing joy over Turkmenistan's achievements since independence and praising it as an exemplary nation.

He highlighted the brotherly ties between Turkmenistan and Türkiye, noting that their shared proverbs reflect unified hearts and goals.
