Holders of diplomatic, service, and special passports of both countries will be eligible to obtain free e-visas, the Turkish foreign ministry says.

Türkiye and Armenia have agreed to mutually facilitate visa procedures for their diplomatic, service, and special passport holders, the Turkish foreign ministry has said.

Starting this Thursday, January 1, holders of diplomatic, service, and special passports from both countries will be eligible to obtain free e-visas, the ministry said in a statement on Monday.
