China's Foreign Minister Wang Yi has said Beijing and the Islamic nations should build a security partnership to promote political solutions to regional hotspot issues.

Beijing is ready to work with Islamic countries to safeguard the "legitimate rights and interests" of developing nations and oppose a return of the world to "the law of the jungle, Wang said.

He made the comments during a meeting with Hissein Brahim Taha, secretary-general of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), in Beijing, according to an official statement by the Chinese Foreign Ministry.
