
ATTEMPTED ATTACK ON ARMENIAN PM LEADS TO ARRESTS IN YEREVAN

-

30.03.2026

Caliber (30 Mardh 2026)

Three people have been detained in Armenia in connection with an incident involving Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan, authorities said.

According to Armenian media cited by Caliber.Az, Interior Ministry spokesperson Narek Sargsyan said the individuals were detained on suspicion of hooliganism and interfering with the lawful official and political activities of a public official.

Following today's incident, officers of the Interior Ministry's police detained three individuals on suspicion of hooliganism and interference with the lawful official and political activities of an official, she said.

Click for more.

Kaynak/Source: