Chinese President Xi Jinping has invited Taiwanese opposition leader Cheng Li-wun to visit China.

Xi invited Cheng, leader of the Kuomintang (KMT) party, to visit the Chinese mainland from April 7 to 12, Beijing-based Xinhua News reported Monday.

Beijing said Cheng has expressed her willingness to visit the mainland on multiple occasions since taking office, adding that the invitation aims to promote ties between the Chinese Communist Party (CPC) and the KMT and support the peaceful development of cross-strait relations.
