
ARMENIA AND AZERBAIJAN AGREE LANDMARK INTERNET DEAL AS PEACE PROCESS CONTINUES

-

24.06.2026

Euronews (23 June 2026)

Nadira Tudor & Peter Barabas

Armenia and Azerbaijan leading telecom companies agreed to a joint internet transit project as both countries move forward together after decades of war, boosting regional connectivity.

Armenia and Azerbaijan signed a major agreement to transit internet traffic through their territories, marking a new step in the peace process between the former rivals.

The agreement is expected to diversify regional connectivity routes, enhance reliability and resilience in the South Caucasus, and support infrastructure development in Eurasian telecom networks.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: