Cyprus Mirror (29 June 2026)

Greek Cypriot media has reported that UN Secretary-Generals Personal Envoy for the Island of Cyprus, Maria Angela Holguin, has postponed her planned meeting with European Council President Antonio Costa in Brussels to 13 July.

According to reports, Holguin initially planned to carry out contacts with EU institutional leaders on the Cyprus issue, but decided to delay her Brussels visit in order to assess the possible implications of the NATO Summit and the contacts expected between Türkiye and European leaders during the summit on the Cyprus issue.
