Nicola Procaccini say he is optimistic that French far-right leader will not be destructive for the EU.

The EU must be prepared to work closely with Marine Le Pen if she wins the French election, a top Brussels ally of Italian Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni told POLITICO.

Nicola Procaccini said the EU institutions and the center-right European Peoples Party must be courageous when it comes to working with the far-right Patriots party in Brussels, the European home of Le Pens National Rally, if she wins Aprils presidential election, just as they were after Melonis victory in Rome in 2022.
