BRUSSELS SETS SLIMLINE LEGISLATIVE AGENDA FOR 2027

- 04.11.2026

Politico (3 November 2026)

Brussels prioritizes competitiveness and deregulation while withdrawing stalled proposals and scrapping obsolete rules.

The European Commission is scaling back its legislative ambitions for 2027, prioritizing competitiveness, deregulation and economic security as the clock starts to run down on Ursula von der Leyens second term.

According to a copy of its annual Work Programme and related annexes obtained by POLITICO, the EU wants to strengthen the single market, cut red tape, modernize industry and bolster its defense capabilities at a time of mounting geopolitical risks and economic uncertainty.
