AVRASYA İNCELEMELERİ MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

AVRASYA İNCELEMELERİ MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

SYMPOSIUM ENTITLED "THE CRIME COMMITTED BY THE GREEKS AGAINST HUMANITY IN ANATOLIA: COULD THE OCCUPIER BE CONSIDERED AS VICTIM ?"

23.05.2022

On 17 May 2022, the Turkish Historical Society under the Atatürk High Institution of Culture, Language and History" held a symposium at the Black Sea Technical University titled The Crime Committed By Greeks Against Humanity In Anatolia: Could The Occupier Be Considered As Victim?"

In the symposium, crimes of the Greece against humanity in Anatolia and the Pontus issue were discussed on a scientific basis and in multidimensional context. Analyst Teoman Ertuğrul Tulun and Analyst Mehmet Oğuzhan Tulun at the Center for Eurasian Studies (AVİM) attended the symposium. Nine expert researchers from Turkey and abroad made presentations in the symposium. In this context, AVİM Analyst Teoman Ertugrul Tulun made a presentation titled " The Silent Truth: Crimes of Greece in Anatolia" in the third session of the symposium.

For symposium brochure please click

For AVİM Analyst Teoman Ertuğrul Tuluns presentation abstract please click

For symposium please click

Kaynak/Source: