The Central Asia + Japan Dialogue Summit is scheduled to take place in Tokyo this December, Trend reports via Kazakh Invest national company.

Preparation for the summit discussed Deputy Chairman of the Management Board of Kazakh Invest, Madiyar Sultanbek, during a meeting with Hidehiko Ishii, Director for Russia, Central Asia and Caucasus region at Japan's Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, along with Deputy Director Daisuke Yanagita and representatives of the Embassy of Japan in Kazakhstan.

During the meeting, the sides discussed the current state and future prospects of investment and trade-economic cooperation between Kazakhstan and Japan. Particular attention was given to strengthening ties between the business communities of both countries, as well as the development of joint projects in industrialization, green energy, rare earth metals, and digital technologies.
