
AUSTRIA TO CHANGE TWO STREETS NAMED AFTER NAZI SUPPORTERS

-

04.07.2025

BBC News (3 July 2025)

Hafsa Khalil

Two streets in Adolf Hitler's hometown in Austria are to be renamed following longstanding complaints that they commemorate Nazis, officials say.

The council of Braunau am Inn made the decision on Wednesday after a "secret vote", according to local media. It followed a report, commissioned by the local government, which concluded that keeping the names was unconstitutional.

The streets are named after composer Josef Reiter and entertainer Franz Resl, both of whom were members of the Nazi party.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: