Daily Sabah (6 July 2025)

Türkiye and Greece have signed a protocol to strengthen tourism cooperation between each other, aimed at expanding collaboration in niche areas such as rural and maritime tourism, to boost mutual flows of tourists.

The agreement was reached at the 6th Joint Tourism Committee Meeting, which was held in Ankara under the co-chairmanship of Deputy Minister of Culture and Tourism Nadir Alpaslan and Greeces Deputy Minister of Tourism Anna Karamanli, according to a statement by the Ministry of Culture and Tourism.

In his speech at the meeting, Alpaslan stated that expanding the scope of the visa-on-arrival system would bring significant benefits to both countries.
