Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan has announced that Armenia is prepared to facilitate the transit of trucks from Türkiye to Azerbaijan and back through Armenian territory along the Margara-Yeghegnadzor-Sisian-Goris route, News.Az reports, citing Armenian media.

If a truck from Türkiye arrives at the Margara checkpoint to travel to Azerbaijan, we can allow it right now. Our roads in Goris and Kordidzor are in good condition, Pashinyan said during discussions on the 2026 Armenian state budget bill at a joint session of parliament.

He added, As you know, we have certain infrastructure in Kordidzor, which we can maintain, including for traffic in the opposite direction. In other words, if an Azerbaijani truck arrives at Kordidzor to travel to Türkiye, we can facilitate that right now.
