Kyrgyzstan and Indonesia discussed the state and prospects of Kyrgyz-Indonesian cooperation, emphasizing the importance of intensifying political dialogue, Trend reports via the press service of the Kyrgyz MFA.

The issue was discussed on February 23, 2026, in Geneva on the sidelines of the high-level segments of the UN Human Rights Council and the Conference on Disarmament during a meeting between Minister of Foreign Affairs of Kyrgyzstan Jeenbek Kulubaev, and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Indonesia Sugiono.

The parties emphasized the significance of high-level visits, enhancing bilateral relations, and fostering collaboration within the United Nations and other global organizations.
