ARMENIA'S DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE IS ‘ANTI-STATE,' PASHINYAN DECLARES

- 30.10.2026

Asbarez (29 October 2026)

In his push for a new constitution Pashinyan says peace must come first.

Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan, once again, described Armenias Declaration of Independence as an anti-state text, arguing that abandoning its ideology is in the countrys national interest.

Speaking to reporters after a cabinet meeting on Thursday, Pashinyan said Armenias new Constitution should be based on a vision for longevity of the state, adding that establishing institutional and irreversible peace is his top priority as prime minister.
